

The Edited Choice

Investment mirrors

Delicious details mean there's more to these mirrors than just a pretty face...

RESEARCH JENNIFER HASLAM

Lavish texture

Soft flock in chic shades adds a new dimension to Victorian pier mirror style. Plush Crested Sconce mirror in flocked wood (W135 x H192cm), £1,295, Christopher Jones Antiques.

Instant vintage

Vintage mirrors arranged in unique configurations – no two are alike. Collected Memories mirror in wood and glass (W122.7 x H134.6cm), £658, Anthropologie.

Livingetc loves

Natural luxe

Mercury or silvered glass, in a glam foil for the textural coconut frame. Also available in black. Coco mirror in mercury glass and coconut shell (D75cm), £850.75, Ochre.

decorating ideas

FYI

The Romans believed mirrors trapped your soul. They also thought the body regenerated itself every seven years, hence the bad luck superstition.

Global chic

An eco-friendly take on the global artisan trend. Bone Inlay mirror in wood and camel bone (W75 x 100cm), £900, Niki Jones.

Reflective facets

Bold metallic faceted design that will bounce light around and add a hint of retro glamour. Gold Nugget mirror in resin (W92 x H105cm), £695, Heal's.

Subtle media storage

Witty – and wall-friendly – update on the multi-mirror trend. Bubbles mirror in glass (W75 x H103cm), £95, Nick Munro at John Lewis.

Window look

Chateau chic with a window feel. Miriam mirror in distressed wood (D95cm), £175, Laura Ashley.

Statement colour

The super-glossy material gives the bold frame real depth. Francols Ghost mirror in dyed polycarbonate (W88 x H110cm), £314.65, Philippe Starck for Kartell at Nest.

frugality duty

Modern rococo

Opulence goes chic in black. Rocco mirror in resin (W89 x H102cm), £125, Next Home.

ONLINE EXTRA

Find inspiring room galleries and insider shopping tips at livingetc.com/news.