

Shopping news

Hot shops and what to buy right now

Petal power Show off your spring flowers in style with these beautiful vintage metal vases from Niki Jones. Each one is unique, so you can group different designs and sizes together and fill them with colourful posies to make an eye-catching display.

Vintage metal vases, from £20 each, Niki Jones (0141 959 4090; niki-jones.co.uk)

Stop press! Danish brand Vipp, famous for its stylish bins, has launched a new range of kitchen tools, including salt and pepper mills and a dish-washing set. The monochrome designs are as striking as you'd expect. From £55 (vipp.com).

ART ATTACK

Designer Lisa Stickley is best known for her homespun, handmade textiles, and this month she launches a new collection of linens for the bedroom and bathroom, available exclusively at Heal's. Inspired by 1950s floral prints but with a modern twist, the range includes her signature motifs 'Hankie Flower' and 'Fig Daisy'. Our favourite, though, is the 'Paint Palette' bedding (pictured), which is bold, bright and perfect for the bedrooms of any budding artists out there.

'Paint Palette' single cotton duvet cover in Stone, £60; matching pillowcases, £27 per pair, both by Lisa Stickley for Heal's (0870 024 0780; heals.co.uk)

SNEAK PREVIEW

Habitat's new spring/summer collection focuses on getting away from it all – whether your imagination takes you to the British seaside, further afield to hotter climes or simply to the garden or park where you can while away lazy days having afternoon tea with friends. We definitely approve!

From top 'Exmouth' cotton cushion, £10; 'Assisi' glass cake stand, £18; 'Rie' metal planters, from £35 each; 'Candy' cotton rug, £40, all Habitat (0844 499 1111; habitat.co.uk)